

Literacy	Numeracy	Project	Basic Skills	Home fun time - no need to upload - just enjoy!
Can you write some sentences about what you have enjoyed the most about the lockdown period and spending more time at home.	I will upload some graph work this week. These will be pictograms for the children to complete.	What has been your favourite character from the stories that we have covered? Can you draw a picture of this character and write some sentences about them.	Focus on lots of reading for your basic skills this week. Choose some stories from The Oxford Owl site.	Get creative today with some paints. Create a lovely painting or two.
Can you write about something you want to do in the summer holidays.	I will upload some graph work this week. These will be pictograms for the children to complete.	Remember when we looked at the story of 'Little Red Riding Hood'. Can you retell the whole story to your grown up?	Focus on lots of reading for your basic skills this week. Choose some stories from The Oxford Owl site.	Use Lego or whatever building materials you have and make something amazing!
Use your phonics knowledge to write a letter to a friend from your class who you haven't seen. You can draw them a picture and tell them what you miss doing with them.	I will upload some graph work this week. These will be pictograms for the children to complete.	Remember the story of 'The Enormous Turnip' Can you design and draw your own giant vegetable? Where does it grow? How do you look after it?	Focus on lots of reading for your basic skills this week. Choose some stories from The Oxford Owl site.	Go onto YouTube and search 'just dance' Have a go at copying the dances.
Choose your favourite story from the ones we have covered and draw some pictures from it and write a sentence underneath about the story.	I will upload some graph work this week. These will be pictograms for the children to complete.	Our project is called 'How do I get to far far away?' Can you draw what you think the land of 'Far Far Away' would look like.	Focus on lots of reading for your basic skills this week. Choose some stories from The Oxford Owl site.	Watch your favourite movie with your favourite movie snack today.
Help write a shopping list for going shopping at the weekend.	Next to your shopping list, write the price you think those items will be.	Re watch the story of The Ginger bread Man. Can you design your own character that would be made out of a biscuit?	Focus on lots of reading for your basic skills this week. Choose some stories from The Oxford Owl site.	Bake a treat today.